

I have known Paul for well over ten years. I love to travel and have to leave my 4 legged kids behind. Paul has been there for me and my dogs dozens of times. The personal touch he gives them is better than what I do. They love to see him coming and are always sad when he leaves. I would recommend him very highly. The house is always in the same condition when I return.

